DEDICATION

As the Graduating Class, we would like to dedicate this, our "1980 Minuteman Memories," to Mrs. Anne Teguis, our class advisor. She has given 110% of her talent, drive and dedication to us in our final year at Bay Path.

A class advisor of Mrs. Teguis' caliber, should be highly commended for her endeavors. We have no higher praise or honor to give than to dedicate this "1980 Minuteman Memories" to her. This is but a fragment of the honors Mrs. Teguis deserves —

Mrs. Teguis, we thank you,

"Let me introduce my servant Igor, my housekeeper, Mrs. Potter, and . . . Friend."

"Do we have to stay, HERE!"

"Really darling, don't you think we could get back to . . . "

"Women! What a time to pass out!"

"He's just under some kind of spell!"

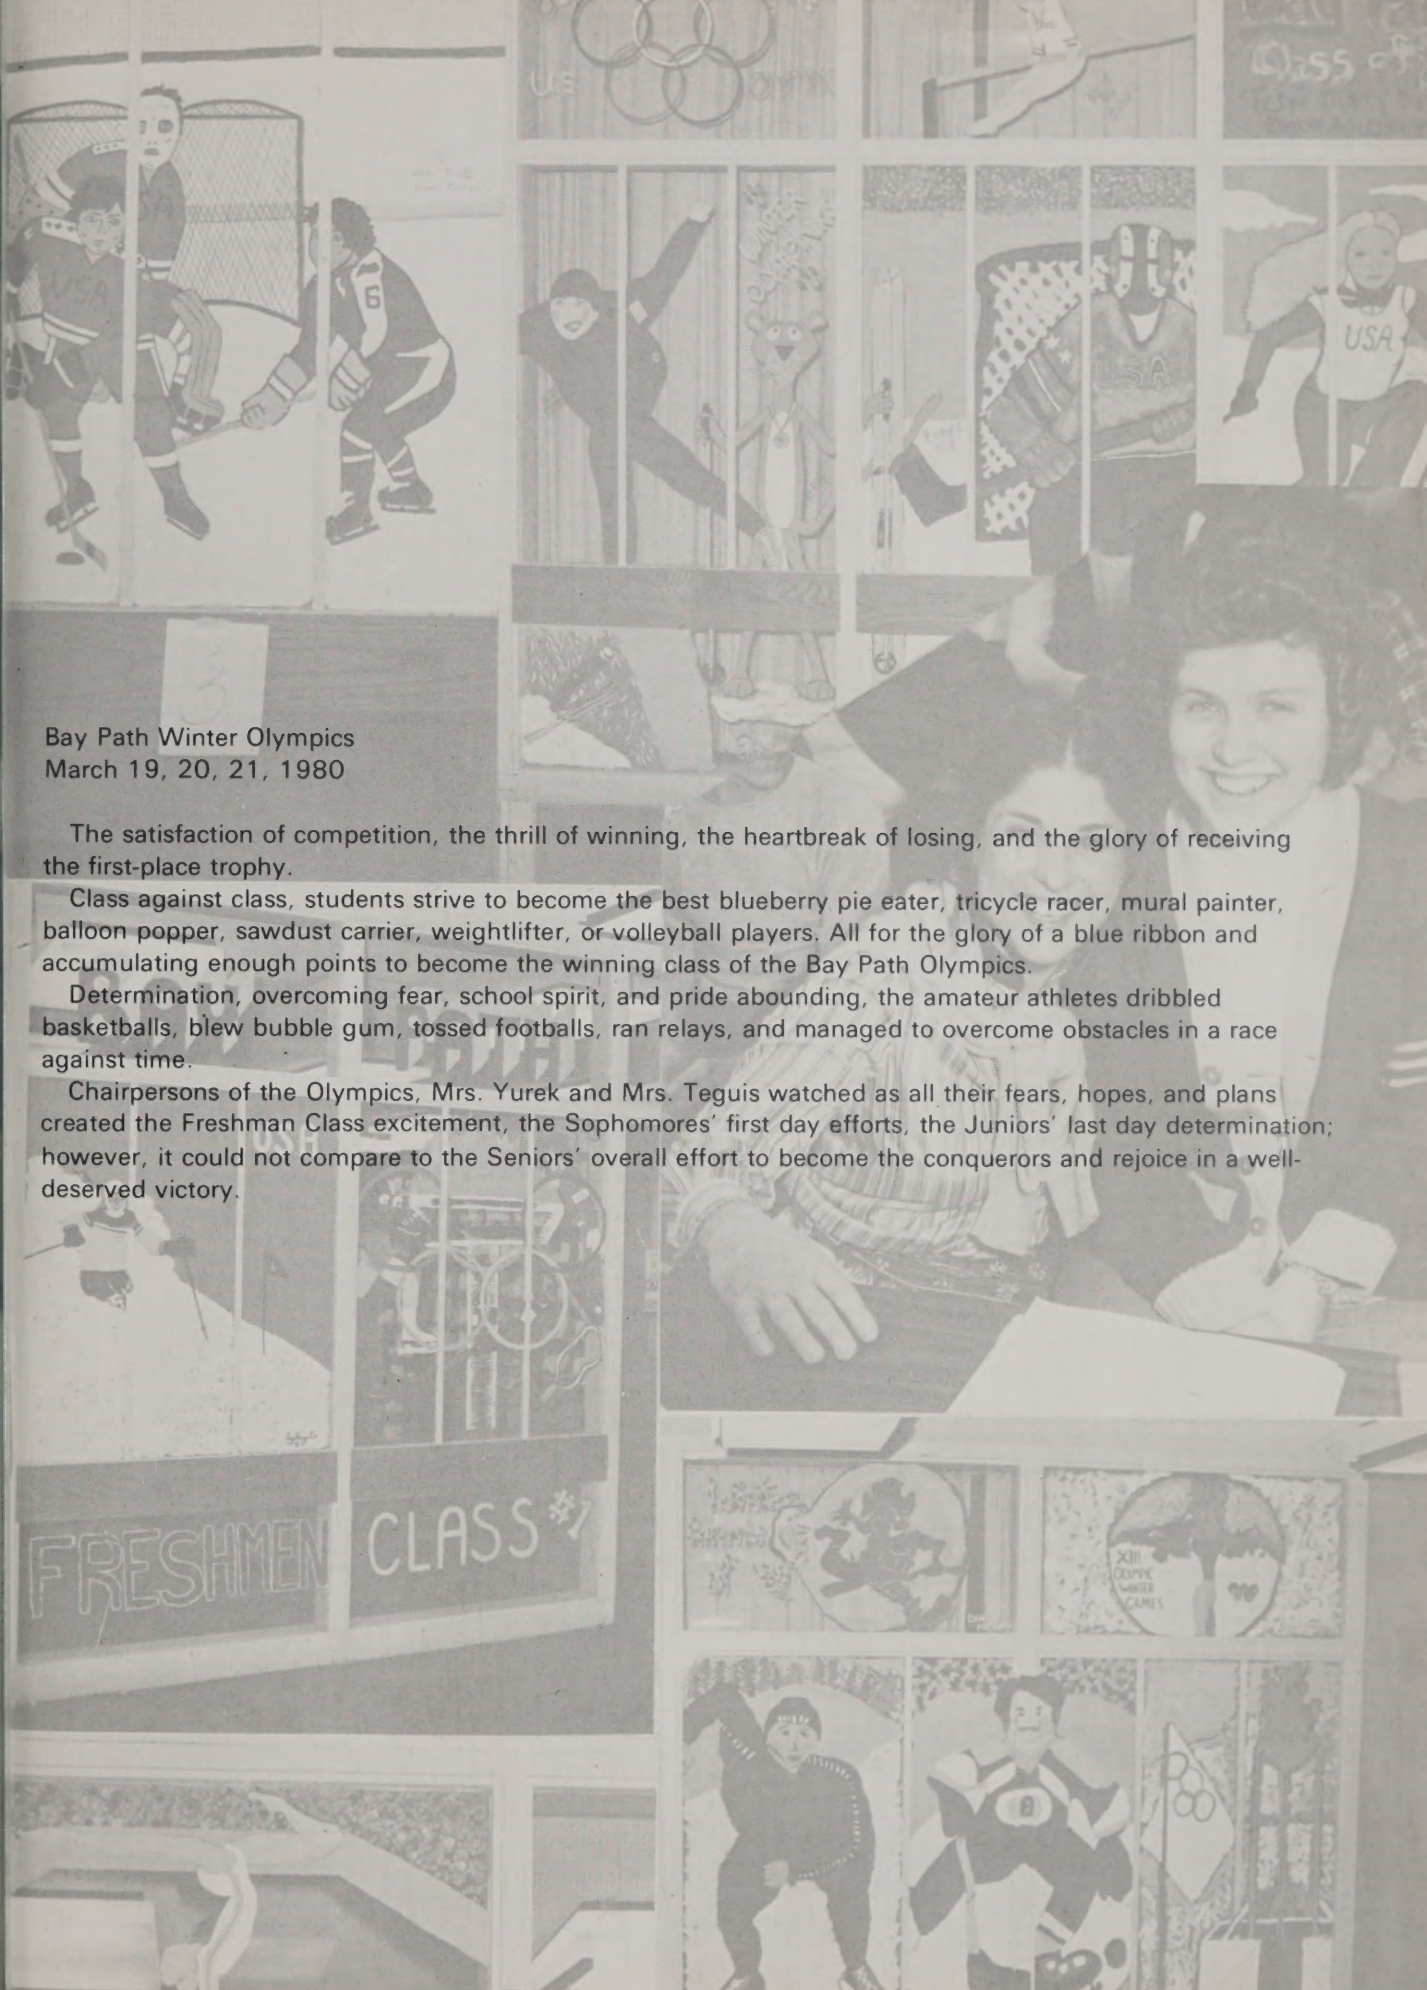
"Hee, hee, hee, hee! (grunt, snort)"

"Is this the button I push?"

"These are some of the strangest things I've ever seen."

"Young lady? Who me?"

"Help! Francis! Professor! Anyone! Help!"



Bay Path Winter Olympics
March 19, 20, 21, 1980

The satisfaction of competition, the thrill of winning, the heartbreak of losing, and the glory of receiving the first-place trophy.

Class against class, students strive to become the best blueberry pie eater, tricycle racer, mural painter, balloon popper, sawdust carrier, weightlifter, or volleyball players. All for the glory of a blue ribbon and accumulating enough points to become the winning class of the Bay Path Olympics.

Determination, overcoming fear, school spirit, and pride abounding, the amateur athletes dribbled basketballs, blew bubble gum, tossed footballs, ran relays, and managed to overcome obstacles in a race against time.

Chairpersons of the Olympics, Mrs. Yurek and Mrs. Teguis watched as all their fears, hopes, and plans created the Freshman Class excitement, the Sophomores' first day efforts, the Juniors' last day determination; however, it could not compare to the Seniors' overall effort to become the conquerors and rejoice in a well-deserved victory.

Acknowledgements

This is the part in most yearbooks which expresses the appreciation of the staff to those who gave their time and effort. The completion of yearbook is not the result of one man's efforts, but of many. Whatever success and praise this year's book receives is due, in a large part, to those on the staff who have responded whenever called upon.

I would like to thank Earl Connor for his supreme efforts in getting the staff together (or at least a semblance of togetherness!). Debbie Moscoffian (my cousin) for always being there and her typing skills. A special thanks for her ability to be constantly frustrated by me. Thanks to Michelle Choiniere, Renee Plasse, Jeff Ryan, for without them, this book would have not been completed. Their's was a splendid effort after graduation. An additional thanks for their willingness to serve on the "81" book. Special thanks to Debbie Germain "Super Senior" who as Business Manager kept the ads organized and handled all our finances. To Lou-Ann Davis my thanks for joining our yearbook staff. She was with us for only half a year but she did a super job. Paul Andrezejewski & Brenda Podedworny deserve thanks for their endeavors in the Senior Directory. To Ricky Brigham, for his work with the Patrons. To Lorene Mattson who even though not a staff member, spent many hours after graduation helping us finish the book. There are others that I would like to thank, particularly John Carrier of Herff Jones Publishing Co. and Casson Foster Photographers. A special thanks to the Administration for all their help in the completion of this book. To Mr. Arthur Metras, my Drafting partner, a real special thanks for his cooperation and understanding for the number of times that I had to leave the shop for photography reasons.
